With the Guggenheim Museum as a great international symbol, Bilbao is a city that is an example of urban transformation at a global level, but has also maintained a number of hallmarks that make it unique. We invite you to discover the city with a local guide after your round of golf (and a little rest!)

For dinner, we recommend stopping in several bars to taste a selection of “pintxos” - the Basque version of tapas. They are made combining traditional products of the Basque cuisine with a modern touch.

Its 18-hole, par 72 course was designed and built taking into account the natural charms of the place, so that it runs between forests, rivers and meadows, immersing the player in a natural setting where one can contemplate the enchanting landscape.
